DiGiacomo Homes Honored with HOUZZ 2015 Awards!

DiGiacomo Homes has been honored with two "Best of Houzz" awards for 2015: one award for design and one for customer service. Curious about how the awards are determined? Here's what HOUZZ had to say upon announcing the winners:

"The people have spoken. Or in the case of the Best of Houzz awards, the people have clicked. We recently counted how many times the more than 25 million monthly Houzz users clicked to add a photo to an ideabook in 2014. The professionals with the most popular of those photos - the most added to user ideabooks - earned a Best of Houzz 2015 badge that they can display on their profile pages. If you see a badge on a professional's profile page, that means one of his or her designs generated a lot of buzz in the Houzz community last year.

In addition to design badges, professionals earned badges for customer service, determined by a variety of factors, including the amount and quality of client reviews received in 2014."

There you have it! You can find "Best of Houzz" badges (shown at
