DESIGN/BUILD REVIEW

Volume 15: Issue 6

Brass Is Back!

We're not talking about the polished brass that was popular in the '80s. We're talking about brushed or aged brass - a timeless finish that is the perfect neutral when paired with matte black for a modern look, oil rubbed bronze if you prefer Craftsman, or brushed nickel in a transitional setting. Whatever your style, soft or edgy, try working in brass accents this year - you'll love the warmth that it adds to any space. Some of our favorite accents come from Schoolhouse Electric Co., Workstead, and Arteriors as shown below.
